- Pupils/families directly, (e.g. via registration forms at the start of the school year, school trip applications, etc)
- Other schools where a pupil has previously attended
- Caerphilly County Borough Council Education Directorate
- Caerphilly County Borough Council Social Services Directorate (if applicable)
- Aneurin Bevan University Health Board School Health Service

If you would like further information on the source of this information, please contact the school.

Your Obligations

Certain pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory due to a legal or contractual obligation (please see below), some of it is optional, and if this is the case you will be asked to give your consent.

We will inform you at the point of collection whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us, or if you have a choice in this. The school will also outline any consequences should you decide not to provide information or to subsequently withdraw consent.

Why do we collect and use your information

Cwmaber Infants and Junior Schools collect information about children and young people and their parents or legal guardians upon enrolment and at other key times during the school year. When children and young people transfer, they may receive information from other schools and early years providers.

Cwmaber Infants and Junior Schools process the information it collects to administer the education it provides to children and young people. For example:

- the provision of educational services to individuals;
- monitoring and reporting on pupils'/children's educational progress;
- the provision of welfare, pastoral care and health services;
- the giving of support and guidance to children and young people, their parents and legal guardians;
- the organisation of educational events and trips;

Cwmaber Infants and Junior Schools collect information about children and young people and their parents or legal guardians when they apply for admission to Cwmaber Infants and Junior Schools. This data can be accessed by Caerphilly County Borough Council for the same reasons listed above.

We collect and use pupil information under Section 537A of the Education Act 1996 and section 83 of the Children Act 1989. We also comply with Article 6(1)(c) and Article 9 (2)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We use pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to keep children safe (food allergies, or emergency contact details)
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us for Welsh Government data collections
- to administer trips and activities, catering and free school meal management, which may include identity management/authentication using biometrics
- to support pupils to decide what they want to do after leaving school

Legal basis for processing

In order for the processing of personal data to be lawful under the General Data Protection Regulations 2016, a valid condition from Article 6 of the Regulations must be identified.

Mandatory school processing of pupil information is covered by:

6(1)(e) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller

The public task is provided by:

Education Act (1996/2002);
Special Educational Needs Code of Practice for Wales (2002)

Optional processing of personal data is covered by the Article 6 condition:

6(1)(a) the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes

For instance, Cwmaber Infants and Junior Schools will ask for your consent to publish or display photographs of your son/daughter on displays around the school, in newspaper or local magazine articles, and on our website and/or social media pages. Information may also be used to keep people up to date regarding school events and activities. You have the right to withdraw consent at any time. Please contact the school for further information.

Data Protection legislation provides extra protection for certain classes of information called 'special categories of personal data', which includes:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Religious or other beliefs of a similar nature
- Political opinion
- Physical or mental health or condition
- Genetic data
- Biometric data (where used for identification purposes)
- Sexual life or orientation
- Trade union membership

Data Protection legislation also provides extra protection for personal data in relation to criminal allegations, proceedings, outcomes and sentences.

If any information falls within these definitions, additional conditions are required from Article 9 for special category data and Article 10 for personal data relating to crimes, taking into account additional provisions of the Data Protection Act 2018. If you have any questions in the meantime, please contact the school.

Article 9(2)(g) for special category data – processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest on the basis of Union or Member State law; and Article 10 for criminal data – when the processing is authorised by Union or Member State law.

The relevant Member State law is the Data Protection Act 2018, and this processing is covered by Schedule 1, Part II, 6(1).

This condition is met if the processing -

- (a) is necessary for a purpose listed in sub-paragraph (2), and*
- (b) is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.*

(2) Those purposes are -

- (a) the exercise of a function conferred on a person by an enactment or rule of law;*
- (b) the exercise of a function of the Crown, a Minister of the Crown or a government department.*

Who will have access to your information?
